

Corporate takeover of media absolutely threatens the free and independent press that is the lifeblood of democracy. Is this one more instance of losing our liberties?